Summer . . . Autumn . . . Winter . . . words never used in the "City of Eternal Spring," Medellin — Colombia. Since mid-August I have been experiencing seasons for the first time while a whole new culture — somewhat similar and yet very different from that of Colombia — is displayed to me. My experience at North Haven has been very valuable and enjoyable. Starting with my school experience, I have been able to join the youth environment and feel like "one of the gang" assimilating the common ideals and learning the "American style of life." As a senior at North Haven High, I have chosen my subjects, which would have been impossible to do in Colombian schools, since in our private education, 12 given subjects are required for every year by the government. Being here I have found a wonderful atmosphere for my study of music; I have studied clarinet for 12 years and, unquestionably, this has been most personally satisfying and rewarding. But of all the wonderful things here, there is nothing that can be compared with the wonderful people, people full of warm feelings and the kindest thoughts, people I will keep in my heart and my mind along with those unforgetable experiences I have had in North Haven. Only one year of my life I could be an AFS'er, and I wish that year never ended but the words of one meaningful song bring me back to reality:

"Todo pasa, todo queda, todo lo nuestro es pasar, pasar haciendo camino, camino sobre la mar.
. . . Caminante, no hay camino; se hace camino al andar."

I will go on making my way through life, someday I will come back to the U.S. to complete my education in Nuclear Physics, and I will be sure to include North Haven in my way.

Lastly, I am most sincerely grateful to all of you participating in my experience; AFS, Krigbaum family, North Haven High, and all of those whom I met and made my stay highly enjoyable. And back to the land of mountains, en la ciudad de eterna primavera, I will be waiting for you with my open arms, my open heart, saying "walk together, talk together."

Thanks, Sachem,
John Seltzer

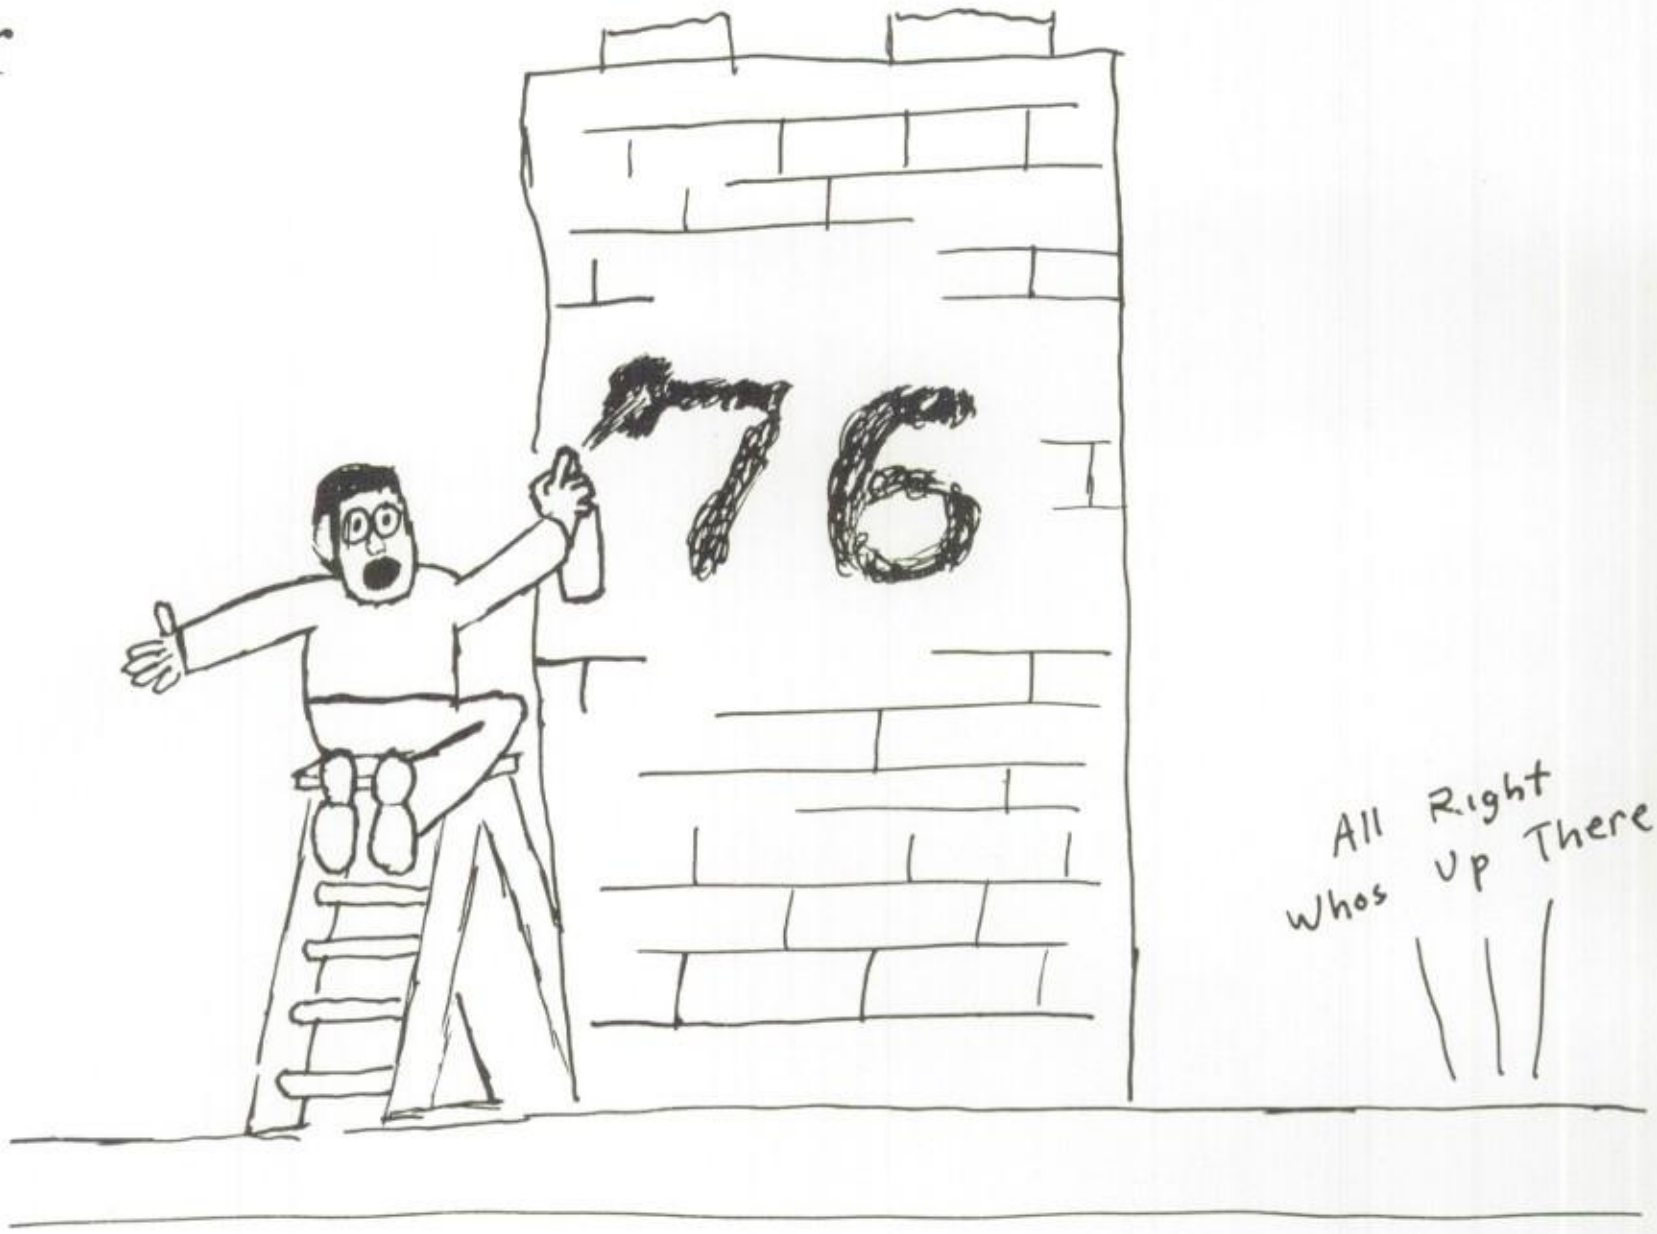
TMR PROGRAM

North Haven High School is uniquely distinguished by counting among its student population a class for secondary Trainable Mentally Retarded. Ten students, with minimal academic ability, are integrated into, contribute to, and benefit from the total school environment.

Their program is basically an orientation to pre-vocational skill training in relation to individual ability. Emphasis is placed on the development of social skills to encourage behavior which leads students to be more tolerant and understanding of themselves, their peers, and their world.

With the assistance and involvement of student aides and faculty participation, their program has been very successful. The idea of secondary housing for T.M.R. students has become an integral facet of the North Haven High School community. It is gratifying to watch a major educational objective in progress — that is, for at least one group of students, the realization that they too are individuals, is closer to reality.

Senior Folio



For most of us it started in the year of '63,
When school was just a word, not yet in our vocabulary.
It began in the sandbox, we all remember the day,
'Cause our mothers brought us to the school and cried as she went away.
Kindergarten was here at last and we had just begun,
What was to be the start of our education.
Little did we know it would be an uphill grind,
That many would not continue, once they got behind.
Off to first grade where we learned to read and write,
And it sure wasn't easy, and it didn't happen over night.
We soon learned how to add, subtract, multiply and divide.
So now "school" was an everyday thing from which we could not hide.
Remember when we used to get a star for a score?
Then "Mom and Dad" would hang them on the refrigerator door.
Or how about the slide, the see-saw or the swings.
And then getting really "mad" when the bell ending recess rings.
Junior High soon proceeded, and our first big step was made.
And with that our memories of grammer school did fade.
But now we were "grownups", or at least that's what they said,
Yet High School was around the corner as we gradually moved ahead.
High School! High School! We were glad to reach that plateau.
Our life, now like a river, for so rapidly it did flow.
And now our time has almost come, and it really seems quite sad,
That our High School years will soon expire along with the good times we've had.
Many people are happy, yet others are filled with tears,
But the saddest thing is that we've already lived our best years.

Alpenglow

Alpen, alpenglow over the mountains
Shine with such a reddish halo
Softens those peaks and projects them as friends
And casts shadows to the valley below.

Alpen, alpenglow lifts my spirt to the sky
Lifts my mind and my soul arises
Lightens my heart towards strife
And lingers on into the night.

Alpen, alpenglow during sunset and sunrise
Shines light of tranquilty into my eyes
Bathes me and watches over me
And remains forever throughout eternity.

SOLITUDE

The wind questioning my presence,
Blackness closing in all around,
  Leaving a small space for me.
Strange scents and noises,
  Come to my nose and ears,
The card of trump flashes before my eyes,
  As the world of sickness, dirt, and hate,
Turns on its axis.

  Dark scenes of my life reminisce in my memory,
Of the tears; but happiness too,
  As my heart beats slower, I await
The stench of the familiar home for the deceased,
  The blackened box of soft interior —
My home away from home.

  Emotions begin to pour out uncontrollably,
As the chest pains worden,
  Finally, no more do I see you
Through my eyes, but through my heart
  You are as clear as ever.
Good-bye; I squeeze this message;
  Then my hand goes limp.
This day was more beautiful
  Than any in my short life.

  I visit the home of eternity,
After I bid farewell,
  I whisper to you that
You were the only one in my life
. . . Ever.

Sarah Jane Drayton

Make me believe it,
Make me believe it's true.
I've realized it's hopeless, and that you and I are really through.

But I can't believe you never cared,
I can't believe that you never loved me,
Or lived on the love that we shared.

I can't believe that there were more than me,
I can't believe that you gave me false love,
Can't you understand, it's hard for me to see.

You had to love me,
at least some of the time.
You had to care a little.
I really thought you were mine.

I can't believe it, so lie to me a little,
say you loved me;
Then I'll understand, that I once had you,
and lost you, because of my own foolish mistakes.
Instead of knowing I was such a fool,
sharing a one sided love.

Diane Smith "75"

You and your neighbor
an unlit match
    struck
upon wet cement
falling and slithering under pink neon signs kneeling before whiteness
you think you repent

You and I
a stale, mottled pair
    bitten
by our blind ancestors
mutations we exist
as thinking jesters
trapped in our own human snare

— Maureen Mulhern —

Powdervelvet wings of a dying gypsy moth
Yellow beneath the porch light
it dances and flutters for teasing stars
they mock this victim of the lightbulb and gleam far away undisturbed

Gypsyqueen falls to the cement struggling the dance of torture
quick memories of orange caravans flash through her blazing mind

My shadow through the cold screendoor covers the tiny white corpse
gazing at the silent queen
I withdraw and subdue the light

— Maureen Mulhern —

smoky apache tears
held up to the light
cloudy
faces whisper ancient secrets scattered over desert lands
scavengers equipped with:
4 years of listening or 6 of nodding
eager double eyes
properly prepared to pick and claw
at the sacred sleeping past buried in baked blood
and dusty tears
all for an encyclopedia
to be tucked under a hidden shelf never to be read
never to be touched never

i found an untouched butterfly dead upon the road
an unfit place for it to die alone and unbestowed

lying in a plastic coffin
it waits upon my shelf
ignorant of lifes simple sin
and also of itself

its colored wings now death dry
for us it shall unload
a blatant earthy alibi
for our powers to erode

from creative minds it did begin to trick our infected self false blood flows quietly within feeding parasites like myself

"HIS FATE"

The almighty emits austerity.
  Is it for himself or all
    That he radiates a sentiment so staid?
    The harmony of life he has forbade
  Praying for each man to fall
Upon the thorn of fate's adversity.

What is his mode of inspiration
  For smiting us painfully
    When we are but untamed running free
    Not culpable for what we are said to be?
  He contemplates disdainfully
As he schemes our castigation.

"For twelve long years I've
  had to shout,
I'm cooped in here please
  let me out!
I'll enter in a messy world
  and find I just can't win,
For once I'm out, turn roundabout
I may well shout to get back in!"

THE SONG OF THE SEA

There are no sweeter melodies
Than sung by the sea
The crispness of the air above
And coolness of the breeze
The way the splashes hit the shore
The waves that go rolling past
Compose a song, a special song
A song we cannot grasp
The freedom of the lusty notes
Just goes drifiting by
But man will never sing this song
Until we touch the sky

The human life has a song of its own
It has its kind of free
Its equivalent to the crispy air
And to the cool, cool breeze
So take your life and make the best
The best your life can be
And live your days all filled with song
Close to as sweet as the sea
May the days and months go sailing by
The minutes ripple far out past
Discovering truth, beauty, and hope
And my your happiness last.

Mr. DeMayo's second season as head football coach was a complete reversal of last year's. The team posted a 6–3 league record and an 8–3 overall record. Two standout defensive performers, Mike Elia and Joe Manguilli were selected to the All-Housatonic Team while Paul Householder, Gary DeMayo, Bob Fers, Vin DeLucia, Myron Esdaile and Dave Miller all received Honorable Mentions. Manguilli was also selected to the Honorable Mention All-State Team. Due to the closeness of balloting both Paul Householder and Dave Miller received a "Most Valuable Player" award. The "Sportsmanship Award" went to Steve Carbonella. The Indians hope to have an even stronger team next season by returning many starters including its three new captains: Chris Griffin, Larry Manguilli and Stacy Rice.

The Soccer Team experienced a somewhat disappointing season by finishing the year with 6 wins, 7 loses and 1 tie; to miss qualifying for the CIAC tournament by one game. Senior Dean Phillips received All-Housatonic recognition, while underclassmen, Juniors Rich Leibiger and Tom Guertin and Freshmen Chris Conte all received Honorable Mentions. Both Don Colantonio and Brian Heery received "Most Valuable Player" awards, while Phillips added the "Sportsmanship Award" to his laurels. Coach Joe Janush will look to Captain elect Tony Massaro along with many returning underclassmen to spearhead a comeback season.

Cross Country

Led by Senior Tri-Captains Pete Crowell, Rich Diana, and Chris Oslin, the 1975 Cross Country Team enjoyed its best season in the schools history. Enroute to a 12 win, 1 loss season, the harrier squad highlighted the year with its first ever win versus Hamden. Team accomplishments included a second place finish in the New Haven County Meet, a third place in the CIAC Sectional Meet which for the third consecutive year qualified the team for the CIAC Large School Championships where the North Haven contingent finished an impressive twelfth. Rich Diana and Chris Oslin were voted to the All-Housatonic Team while Pete Crowell and Dennis Arnone gained Honorable Mention Honors. By vote of his team mates, Chris Oslin was honored as this year's Most Valuable Runner. Team Members included Pete Crowell, Rich Diana, Chris Oslin, Len Malonis, Dennis Arnone, Carl Borkowski, Pete Gangi, Jim Johnson, George Nye, Tim Haag, Ed Hunt, Joe McCarthy, Paul Carpenter, Scott Diana, Alon Kasha, Jim Milani, Jonathon Paris, Kevin Rossi, Mike Carocari (Mgr.) Swimming

GIRL'S SWIM TEAM

The first year for the North Haven High School Girl's Swim Team was very successful. Under the direction of the new coach, Colleen Farnham and leadership of captain Charmy Cutler, the girls established many outstanding records. These records were set at the Divisional Championships in Cumberland, R.I; 200 freestyle — freshman Linda Burke — 2:31.9, Charmy Cutler — 2:35.0, freshman Kate Meikle — 2:34.4. 200 Individual Medley — sophomore Adrienne David — 2:54.0.550 freestyle — junior Jeanne Lofburg — 29.0, junior Ann Kotchian — 29.0. 100 breaststroke — sophomore Gail Goldbloom — 1:21.9. 400 free relay — Adrienne David, Linda Burke, Kate Meikle and Jeanne Lofburg — 4:33.8. Ann Kotchian placed 5th in diving and qualified for the All-Housy team. The team's 1976–77 season looks bright with co-captains Ann Kotchian and Jeanne Lofburg.

Swimming

Under the first year coaching of Chris Burns, the North Haven High School Swim Team finished its season with an overall record of 7–6 and a Housatonic record of 4–4. Both captains, Steve Goldbloom and Dave Lamberti, broke school records as Goldbloom set school records in both the 50 and 100 yard freestyles and Lamberti set a record in the 100 yard butterfly. The four man relay team of Goldbloom, Lamberti, Steve Steinberg and Paul Grimshaw, also set a record in the 400 freestyle relay. Goldbloom continured his laurels by capturing both the 50 and 100 yard freestyle in the Housatonic meet while Dennis Parillo defended his title by winning his second consecutive diving championship.

Hockey

The North Haven Hockey team qualified for the CIAC tournament this year. They finished the season with a 12–7–1 record while being ranked 11th. They fell victim 4–2 to Rockville in their first battle. Assistant Captain Don LeHane led the team in scoring with 33 points. Defenseman Dan Nugent and Junior goalie Steve Hussong both received Honorable Mentions for the All-County team. Coach Frank Fiore hopes to have another successful team next year despite losing ten players through graduation.

Basketball

For the first time in six years the North Haven High School Varsity Basketball team qualified for the CIAC tournament by finishing the season with a 9–9 record. Unfortunately the Indians bowed in overtime, 47–45, to Southington to end the season at 9–10. However, next years outlook seems more promising with the return of four starters. North Haven placed three members in the All Housatonic League balloting as Jack Urbanski was selected to the second team while sophomores, Ed Less and Rob Milone received Honorable Mentions.

THE GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

An example of the girls ability to successfully participate in sports was proven by the N.H.H.S. Girls' Basketball Team this season, under coach Sue Tomko. They finished the season with a 13–8 record and are ranked 7th in the state after playing in the State Tournament. Junior Lisa Erbe was the highest scorer on the team with 223 rebounds, 79 free throws, 153 field goals and 384 total points for the season. She was selected for the first All-Housatonic team. Other high scorers included senior Sally Erickson, Captain Debbie Kruglik and junior Sue Stefanowski. Most defensive credits went to junior Pat Guadagno.

My experience as editor-in-chief of the 1976 SACHEM has been a challenging reward. I have learned that cooperation with my advisors and fellow SACHEM editors is a vital asset to a well organized yearbook staff — and in return a truly splendid book. I was very fortunate to have this. My goal was to create a yearbook that exemplified North Haven High School, and especially that of the graduating senior class of 76. I hope I have accomplished my goal.

Martha Odaynik
Editor-in-Chief

STUDENT PHOTOGRAPHER — Andy Amatruda

Class Will

We, Martha Odaynik and Gail Jansen, leave to next year's Sachem Staff, Mr. Iannone and Mr. Bischoff. Good Luck!

I, Gail Jansen, leave to the Majorettes all the memories of 12:00 midnight trips in a yellow VW with 5 girls. I also leave to Mom and . . . my love always.

I, Martha Odaynik, leave to my brother John my locker the day it was plastered with spaghetti.

I, Joseph Williams, leave my British Accent that I use on the P.A. to the next worthy announcer. I also leave my battered briefcase to the next treasurer of the Senior Class.

We, The clowns of the Science-Math Resource Center, leave circuit breaker #5 to Mr. Rickart who thinks he can control the lights.

I, Maura Curran, leave the tense time from 12:23 to 1:05 to Linda Freiss in hopes that we never go through it again; thanks to Paula for the use of her stilts, and good luck to Hope so she can finally make up her mind.

I, LEAVE

I, Liz Tagliatela, leave my love and long fingernails to my guy Bill R. who is number one in my heart.

I, Linda Richetelli, leave to my sisters a little of "my common sense."

We, the White Squad Cheerleaders, leave much happiness and best wishes for next year's squads.

I, Curtis Orio, leave hoping that those who read this in the Future will be smart enough to cherish their moments in High School while they still have them.

We, Lisa and Peg, leave our seats in the library to Joe and all his friends coming to this campus next year.

I, Sue Mulcahey, leave the memory of "garbage" to Sue Fritts.

I, Ann Vitale, leave my best wishes to the greatest bunch of girls — The Indianettes 75–76.

I, Andy A., leave my driving talents to anybody who can catch me.

We, the "All Nighters", leave our position open to anyone who dares to challenge it.

I, Laurie Pronto, leave my cheerleading position to my sister Donna.

I, Ron Norman, leave behind a lot of fond memories of N.H.H.S., most especially my friends who have helped me a countless number of times. I hope some day to be able to pay them back.

I, "Rondo", leave my uniform number 31 to the "Portchester" because he has a tremendous chest capable of doing my uniform justice.

We, Cozz, Karen, Robin, and Karen, leave the entire lunch wave to anyone with the "capacity" to handle it.

I, Claudia Ferrara, leave my white rubber marching band shoes to anyone who has the guts to wear them.

I, Wendy Carpenter, leave the words: "GET OFF YOUR DUFF!" and "NOT TOO BAD", along with the impossible task of feeding the Majorette Squad, to the captain next year.

I, Andy Amatruda (Bozo), leave my poor excuse for hair to "Rondo" who'll take anything he can get.

We, #5 and #31, leave this school and all its fondest memories to #1, or #25, or whatever number he decides to wear.

I, Barbara Ann Bruce, leave my vicious locker to its next victim — rule it with an iron hand or you'll be sorry.

I, Chris Lyons, leave my quiet nature to Mr. O'Neill.

We, the "ambushers", leave our cries of AMBUSH to anyone who dares to answer them. psz . . . tsz . . .

I, Darlene Kubeck, leave one quiet Community Services East Office and a bottle of Excedrin to Alan and Ed, in full knowledge I'll be seeing them all summer.

I, Peter Ferranti, leave . . . North Haven High School

I, Anita, leave a soggy left shoulder to Rigg, my 20-minute late schedule to Dees, my loud voice to Ceal, and the Marfa jokes to Tric. All my love and the best of everything to all of them.

To Marky: My varsity letter and saddle shoes. Luv Nita.

I, Greg Rubino, leave a lot of Communist Thoughts and an 8 x 10 glossy of Marx and Lenin holding hands to Mr. Dodds.

I, Don Colantonio, leave the class ledger to anyone who can decipher it.

I, Pam DiNuzzo, leave to the next White Squad Cheerleader Captain a bottle of aspirin and a lot of Alka-Seltzer!!

I, Cindy Fairbanks, leave my bowling ability to Cheryl Graef and Patty Gelinas.

We, Kim and Bob, leave our locker to anyone who believes in co-ed lockers.

We, Laura and Gail, leave to each other all the many songs we have shared together. May they always hold a special meaning to us.

We, Gina, Bonnie, and Alyson leave L.C., N.T., and C.C. back in Florida.

I, Rick Alongi, leave my skin head to the Air Force.

I, Sally Erickson, leave my position as class athlete to Lisa Erbe.

I, Tony Savino, just leave my legend.

I, Kati Cornish, leave room 413 and its hard stools to anyone stupid enough to take Physics.

I, Andrea Tomaszek, leave my physics seat open to any girl dumb enough to take the risk.

I, Diane Smith, leave the responsibility of keeping up the complaining to Steve Vincent and Maureen McCafferty.

I, Gail Corcoran, leave my diploma to Ripley's Believe It or Not.

I, Cheryl Rebeschi, leave my seat in Mr. Robbins' chemistry class to Gail Terry.

I, Susan Onofrio, leave my animal statues to my cousin Ellen.

I, Scott Hecker, leave two bags of potato chips and a dozen leg cramps to Chris Beyer.

I, Janet Melilli, leave this school and my past experiences to my little sister Donna, who is the only one who can fulfill them.

Rabbit and Ballet leave their friendly disposition to whoever can handle it.

We, Gina and Bonnie, leave to each other the memories of all the great times during the past 13 years that we've spent together.

I, Laura Hines, leave to "my brother Bobby" much love and many thanks for all the special times and good memories we've shared together.

I, Pamela Haury, leave one bottle of Scarlet Red Ritz dye and one fallen Christmas tree to my dear sweet "brother", Bruce Duff.

We, "House", "Mack", "The Buller" and "The Weasel", and David Micheal Lynch, leave the bare clock in Pumpkin Hall.

I, Charmy Cutler, leave the captainship of the crazy Girl's Swim Team to Ann Kotchian and Jeanne Lofberg, and the 500 free to Kate Miekal and Linda Burke.

We, "The Party Wreckers", leave a new sing and a bottle of Brue (which is in the closet) to Rosina B.

I, Mary Jane Massimino, leave my horrible smelling Italian book to Miss Carlotto.

I Mike Maltese leave awl mi inglish nolige too Mr. O'Neill.

I, Dennis Dunn, leave my locker to somebody with a good kick to open it.

We, "The Outcasts", leave our title to anyone who can get talked about as much as we did.

I, Nancy Fredericks, leave my title, "Munchkin", to anyone smaller than four feet, ten inches.

Rita, Colleen and Sharon leave after accomplishing our Mission of getting away with everything we planned.

To Juli G. I leave a ton container of popcorn.

We, the three kids in Mr. Schatzlein's period 6 class, leave the question, "WHAT HAPPENED TO YOUR THUMB??" to Mr. Schatzlein.

I, Paul Householder, leave my #48 and #16 to anyone who feels that they can live up to my legend.

I, Bambi Edwards, leave to this school nothing, but take with me, friendships and fond memories that will always be a part of me.

We, Gail, Laura, Bonnie, and Gina, leave to Mr. Burrill our four seats in the corner of his room, which have caused much grief and happiness for both us and him; and which will never be the same empty as they were full.

I, Lori DeSena, leave to Ron Norman, another Rondo sign, all the cutes, sweeties, dears, and darlings we can both think of, and a life time pass to Mrs. Haseltine's class.

We, Lisa Gabriel and Kathy Day, leave our laughs, giggles, and good grades to Mr. Fiore.

We, Lisa, Kathy, Patty, Maura, Anita, Linda, Cindy leave.

I, Cindy Boffa, leave the lady in Farm Shop to Patty Parolise, and a set of permanent curls to Denise Clinton.

We, Nancy Battis and Sue Pettorini leave . . . to the new students of the East Campus.

I, Robin Schwartz, leave NHHS with many happy memories.

We, Robin Schwartz and Karen Page leave good old North Haven High School having "raged" to the best of our ability.

We, Karen Butler and Anita Gangi, leave a 300 bowling score to Andrea and all their gutterballs to Rob.

We, the seniors of the Maroon Squad Chauffeuring Company, leave our gas bills to the juniors.

I, Butler, leave a lifetime supply of mint-chocolate chip ice cream to Rigg.

I, Kim Russell, leave my non-existent parking space to anyone who can find it.

I, Alyson Patch, leave all the tracks between Ms. Williams room and the cafe to anyone fast enough to take my job.

I, Kim, leave my gratitude for help in Bio. to Mike, Dave and Spencer.

We, Linda, Liz, Cindy, Sue, and Lauren, leave Miss Jenske's locker room in the morning to anyone who depended on it as much as we did.

We, L.D. and L.N. leave to Mr. Pesticci love and understanding. Thanks!

I, Cinda Abercrombie, leave the great locker no. 2 to Melon P. and K.A.A.

I, Louis Piccirillo, leave without regret and with a clear conscience, but most importantly, I leave to Mr. Cavaliere the first complementary copies of my published Biology I and II notebooks.

I, Bob Mortali, leave this high school . . . to my brother who will be a freshman next year, and express my deepest sympathies to him as he begins four long years. At least they're over for me.

I, Steve Steinberg, leave all of my fondest memories of N.H.H.S. to any underclassman who is responsible enough to accept anything of mine.

I, Denise Bodwell, leave a dozen lemons and a gallon of iced tea to my "sister" Lisa Falcigno.

I, Jan Kaplan, leave a pair of broken skis and a pack of "Now and Laters" to Lynn Robinson; and the "White Monster" to Cheryl Porter with hopes that she'll get to ride in it some day.

I, Luisa Giaimo, leave my safety glasses and my (occasionally) grumpy power mechanics teacher to any girl willing to risk being the only female in a class full of male chauvinists.

We, the Canasta kids, leave our greasy potatoe chip laden, sugar-coated canasta cards that are four times the thickness they should be for Mrs. White — may she learn the meaning of straight and flush and kindly tell us!

We, Brenda Lofberg and Pam Cole, leave the candy store and Friendly's to Jean Lofberg.

I, Brenda Lofberg, leave D.P. & L in West Rutland to Cheryl Porter.

I, Pam Cole, leave my late passes to E & P.

I, Lisa Carr, leave to Lee Ann Ferraiuolo all the fun I never had in the cafe.

We, Laura Hines and Gail Verdi, leave to the future Mrs. Haynes, much love and happiness in the future and lots of luck to Bill in handling her.

I, Ken Tedeschi, leave "a thinking cap" to Rob Milone, so that he may think of more ways to avoid running "suicides".

I, Kathy Tyrrell, leave my laugh to anyone who could match it.

We, Wendy Loller and Kathy Tyrrell, leave our parking spaces to their rightful owners.

I, Tom McLellan, leave the saying "PUT AN EGG IN YOUR SHOE AND BEAT IT" to Frank Fiore.

I, Mike Elia, leave my handkerchief to Dave Lynch who was running all night.

I, Bambi, leave my thanks to a special friend who was always there when I needed him!!

We, Ann Vitale and Linda Richetelli, leave all our interior decorating knowledge to Mrs. Hilton.

I, Rhoda, leave my "Horshack" laugh to Karen and Kevin.

I, Danny Nugent, leave Cindy Gidoni my hockey schedule to root on the future N. H. hockey teams.

I, April Palm, leave the East Campus chorus at the mercy of Miss Sherman.

To Mr. Fiore: 1 dozen white knee sox will be delivered to you C.O.D. from the Cranberry Cheering Supplies Co. (eat your heart out Mr. DeMayo, but you can have the cookie receipes!)

I, Ralph DeMatteo, leave my dates to anyone who wants them!

We, Laura and Gail, leave to Lisa and Jean, June 23rd in hopes that they can someday spend it the same way we did!

I, Paul Marinuzzi, leave my Cavatellis to Miss Blanchard.

I, Mike Weed, leave my perversion to Anita Bacchi.

I, Claire Purcella, leave the animals in this school to my brother to suffer with and to hear all day long.

I, leave Mr. DeLucia, Mr. Chapman, and Mr. Iannone to the mercy of North Haven High.

I, Richard Reid, don't leave anything to anybody because I'm taking it all with me.
